

Personal Support Workers Casual Elect to Work throughout Durham Region

Supporting the mission, vision and strategic plans of the organization the PSW aids clients receiving a variety of services including Access to Primary Care, Assisted Living Services, In-Home Respite, Home at Last (HAL), Home First, and Supportive Housing. Under the direction of the Program Manager, tasks are defined by the specific service and may include:

- Accompanying clients to/from critical primary care appointments and providing appropriate supports and follow-up
- Personal Support Services including dressing, personal hygiene, assisting with mobility, assisting and monitoring medication use and other routine activities of daily living
- Homemaking services including shopping, housecleaning, and meal preparation
- Safety checks and/or reassurance services
- Transition assistance to clients, including transportation from hospital and settlement services at the home
- Completing necessary client/visit documentation and reports

The PSW provides care in the client's home and community in accordance with CCD's policies and procedures. Recognizing the role of the PSW is to provide safe and appropriate care to clients, all workplace health and safety practices must be followed, including the standard operating processes when working with infectious diseases, ambulating clients, driving clients, etc., and must be willing and able to perform CPR if safe for the employee to do so. The PSW communicates with the Manager and/or supervisor as directed and works in a safe manner and promote the health and safety of all staff, volunteers, clients and the community as outlined within CCD policies.
