

Community Care Durham

SUPPORTING PEOPLE, STRENGTHENING COMMUNITY

Mission: With coordinated networks of volunteers and staff, enrich the well-being and quality of life for people wherever they call home.

Volunteer Position: Friendly Visitor

Why should I get involved in volunteering?

- Enrich your life and the lives of others.
- Support the health, independence and well-being of our clients.
- Be part of a social environment and develop meaningful relationships.
- Help make a difference and give back to your community.

How can I help?

Build a friendship through in-person conversation, companionship and sharing experiences.

What is expected of me?

Flexible schedule based on your availability (weekday or weekend, daytime or evening). Visits are typically 1-2 hours per week.

- Visit your client on a weekly basis.
- Visits can occur in the clients' home or in the community.
- If you are transporting a client in your vehicle, you must submit a driver's abstract on file.

Volunteers are not to provide personal care to clients including, but not limited to, lifting, transferring, toileting, and dispensing medications.
